SPECIAL AWARDS

The Richard P. Bond Award
Dick Bond was New Canaan’s First Selectman from 1996 – 2003. Today it bears dozens of marks directly attributable to him and his administration. A great friend of New Canaan education, Dick got started in town politics as a citizen fighting for a school budget that was under threat of deep cuts. He firmly believed that education was New Canaan’s “secret sauce”. The award we give today in his name is intended to recognize someone who, like Dick, has made a difference. It goes to the graduating student, who during his/her NCHS career has had the greatest positive impact on NCHS – the student who, more than most, has made what is already a wonderful institution even better. Additionally, the recipient will have demonstrated strength in academics and in one or more non-academic areas.

KIERA RUSSO
The Henry Coleman Memorial Award
Henry S. Coleman was a former Dean of Financial Aide, Director of Admissions, and Dean of Students at Columbia University. While living in New Canaan for over 50 years, he chaired the Board of Education and was one of the founders of the New Canaan High School Scholarship Fund, serving on its Grant and Aid committee until his death in 2006. His lifelong passion was to ensure that every student had access to a good education. This fund, set up in honor of his memory, gives the award in his name to the student or students who have demonstrated a sustained commitment to helping others, but who also possess the character and skills of leadership that make them role-models among their peers.

Even beyond his children's playing days he could be seen doing the same thing. To Walt, it was bigger than his children's success - it was about a love for the game, a love for the town and a love for all kids. He taught that achievement in sport is group excellence and that every player's first obligation is to her/his team. He showed each of us that genuine pleasure in sport comes through heartfelt participation and dedication to her/his team and teammates, rather than the pursuit of individual reward.
