Through Our Eyes VIII is New Canaan High School's 8th Annual Art Exhibition at the Carriage Barn Arts Center.

This exhibition features the artwork of 111 students, grades 9 - 12, in all media from a wide range of Art elective courses offered at NCHS. These courses include Drawing, Painting, Printmaking, Mixed Media Design, Photography, Advanced Digital Media, Studio Art, AP Studio Art, Jewelry and Filmmaking.

New Canaan High School Art Department is directed by Alan Sneath and led by Art teachers, Jeanne McDonagh, Jennifer Sinski and Kimanne Core.

Featured in this exhibition are 11 award winning artworks from the 2020 Connecticut Scholastic Art Awards.

Also to be noted, are students who received awards at Sacred Heart University's 'Teen Visions' Annual Regional High School Art Show.

Through Our Eyes VIII is presented by the New Canaan Society for the Arts and sponsored by Bankwell, HTG Investment Advisors, HandWright Gallery and Framing, Anderson Kenny Architecture, William Raveis Real Estate and the Fritz Eager Foundation for Art Education.
